The sequel to GoP Games' award-winning City of the Dead. Haunting and disturbing, The Funeralmaster returns with a more mature approach. Welcome to Namborough, a town that has the reputation of being a black, mean, swampy, sinkhole of the nastiest, most diabolical demimonde any town has ever seen. For the cult of Doom has arrived and they're ready to enact their sickest plans ever. They have started an evil competition: Who has the sickest cult symbols and rituals (who can make the most psychopaths kill each other)? The winner will gain fame, power, and the love of all of... Namborough! The Funeralmaster is back and this time he takes revenge on the town of his adoptive home. Descendants of a long-forgotten civilization that first spread through Namborough, the Doom cult began to bring back the dead from both World War I and the zombie apocalypse. Now, the Funeralmaster has returned to punish them for resurrecting the undead. How will he exact revenge on the people who have caused so much suffering? How will the people of Namborough react to the insanity of the Funeralmaster and his minions? Featuring reanimated Nazis and even the Loch Ness Monster! This game is a lot darker than it's predecessor and holds a very serious and horrific story to be told. It contains references to slavery, racism, sexism, brainwashing, serial killers, suicide bombers, the Vietnam War, the Holocaust, Native American genocide, mutilation, serial killers, pornography, real-life mental institutions, etc. The game will deliver a mature story while still keeping a light-hearted, playful tone. $19.99 DOWNLOAD THIS PRODUCT The high-resolution soundtracks have been removed. The Conservative government is all set to introduce a bill aimed at forcing pornography sites to accept responsibility for the content on their sites. The new legislation, called the "Protecting Children from Internet Predators Act," was just been tabled in the House of Commons on Wednesday. The paper is fronted by Jason Kenney, Minister of Citizenship and Immigration, though Heritage Canada is involved. The bill puts the onus of parental responsibility on porn sites in cases when they make use of images that are harmful to children in the community. Critics say the legislation could easily be used against gamers, bloggers, anti-abortion groups and political activists. The idea is that the Canadian government should try to reduce the amount of harmful content on the Internet. The legislation proposed in Parliament isn't quite the same as last year's. Under its predecessor, for instance, the Internet standards would apply to all purposes and to all websites. The new version only covers "direct" child pornography, and its intention is to deal with that kind of thing. Adam Hardy, the director of the Centre for Digital Rights in Toronto and the Toronto Sun's "cyber-cop," commented on the proposed legislation. He said he and his staff "are looking at a number of different ways" to try to circumvent the proposed

Huge Bang Bang is coming from the French studio: "Basketthrow", the team behind a previous title, "Basketball Fever" and is available in English since the beginning of the year. They're currently seeking funding through IndieGoGo so if you have an interest on their project, they are still looking for players who will help them reach their goals. When you register for the game, you will receive a unique code, that you need to be the NPC when you play the game. A: There is a free 2D MOBA game called DOTA: The Board Game. From the Wikipedia entry: In Dota 2 the four heroes selected for each game act as a team (sometimes known as the "core heroes"). Each player is able to pick one "core hero" and a maximum of two of the other three, depending on mana. The goal of the game is to destroy the enemy's ancient while protecting your own. Because of the focus on the core heroes, the importance of the other three heroes is reduced and it is possible to have a very different game from one with many carry heroes to one with a very low amount of carry heroes.
