He's got the country twang and yodel, but much to Shelton's chagrin, Tanner does not actually have a mullet. Still, Shelton is the only coach to turn here after Tanner's authentically old school, albeit a little busy, country performance. Shelton's impressed not just because Tanner has the country goods, but because he also has that "rock edge to [his] voice, like Pearl Jam." Tanner is right at home on Team Blake. throwing a punch turns into knocking a guy down to get away, turns into knocking a bunch of guys down to get away, turns into killing a bunch of guys to get away, turns into killing just, every single guy. every single guy. all. Zoey is brought in court, with Gabe apologizing for bringing her in but he has to know something. Gabe has Zoey confirm that she meant a comment for another viewer. After she does, he tries to get Zoey to say one of his comments that he told her on one video but she refuses to do so. Gabe reads it for her, saying she loves him. Carisi asks the judge what the relevance of this is and Catano agrees while Gabe says he is trying to get to the bigger issue. He looks to Zoey to say his comment again but Carisi silently tells Zoey not to answer and she again refuses. Gabe protests this issue to the Judge who only tells him to move on. Gradually getting frustrated with Zoey, Gabe tells her that the usual routine is her doing what he asks, while calling Zoey by her stage name Kendra. He then has an outburst, requiring the judge to order him to be taken away while he frantically professed his love to Zoey, once again calling her Kendra. However, Zoey firmly says her real name and that he raped her and she did not want that. Infuriated at being led on, Gabe flies into a psychotic rage and breaks free from the guards to attack Zoey but is grabbed and dragged out by court guards. Gabe screaming for Zoey echoes in the courthouse halls, begging the bailiffs to release him and let him go back, which shocks and disturbs Zoey, Carisi, Tamin, Judge Catano and the jury.
