What is Grand Truck Simulator 2?

A realistic truck driving simulation game for mobile devices

Grand Truck Simulator 2 is a mobile game developed by Pulsar GameSoft, a Brazilian studio that specializes in truck simulation games. It is the sequel to the popular Grand Truck Simulator, which was released in 2015. Grand Truck Simulator 2 aims to provide a new concept in mobile logistics simulation, with more realistic physics, graphics, sounds, and gameplay. The game is currently in beta version and is available for free on Google Play Store and App Store.

Features of Grand Truck Simulator 2

Some of the features that make Grand Truck Simulator 2 stand out from other truck simulation games are:

- You can drive a variety of trucks from different brands, models, and generations, such as Mercedes-Benz, Volvo, Scania, Mack, Volkswagen, etc.
- You can choose from different types of trailers and cargo, such as flatbeds, tankers, refrigerated trailers, containers, etc.

- You can buy, sell, repair, upgrade, and customize your trucks and trailers with different parts and accessories, such as engines, gearboxes, differentials, tires, rims, lights, horns, etc.
- You can check tire pressure, coolant and lubricant levels, fuel consumption, damage, and wear of your vehicles.
- You can explore different maps with varied landscapes, weather conditions, traffic situations, road signs, etc.
- You can follow realistic rules and regulations of truck driving, such as speed limits, tolls, weigh stations, rest areas, etc.
- You can interact with other players online through chat and multiplayer mode.

What are skins in Grand Truck Simulator 2?

Custom paint jobs for trucks, trailers, and cargo

Skins are one of the ways you can customize your trucks and trailers in Grand Truck Simulator 2. Skins are files that contain images or textures that can be applied to the surface of your vehicles. Skins can change the color, pattern, logo, design, or theme of your trucks and trailers. For example, you can use skins to make your truck look like a real-life company's truck or a famous movie's truck. You can also use skins to match your trailer with your cargo or to create a unique combination of colors and styles.
