If you are wondering what are the best songs from the Fast Five soundtrack, here are some of our favorites:

- "How We Roll (Fast Five Remix)" by Don Omar, Busta Rhymes, Reek da Villian and J-Doe: This is the opening song of the film and sets the tone for the action-packed adventure. It features a catchy chorus and fast-paced rap verses that showcase the skills of the four artists. The song also has a remix by Hybrid that adds more electronic elements and beats.

- "Desabafo/Deixa Eu Dizer" by Marcelo D2 and Claudia: This is a Brazilian song that mixes hip hop and samba influences. It plays during the scene where Dom and Brian arrive in Rio de Janeiro and meet up with their old friends. The song expresses the frustration and desire of the people who live in the favelas (slums) of Rio.
- "Danza Kuduro" by Don Omar and Lucenzo: This is a Portuguese and Spanish song that blends reggaeton and kuduro genres. It plays during the end credits of the film and celebrates the victory and freedom of the protagonists. The song is upbeat and danceable and has become a global hit.

Of course, these are not the only good songs from the Fast Five soundtrack. You can listen to the whole album and discover more gems that suit your taste and mood. Whether you are looking for some adrenaline-pumping tunes or some relaxing melodies, you will find something to enjoy in this soundtrack.
